It is understood that membership in the Pioneer Valley Yacht Club (PVYC) is contingent upon the approval of the Board of Governors. In consideration of acceptance of membership by the PVYC, the under-signed agrees to release the PVYC, its Officers, Directors and Agent of all liabilities of every description, whether based on negligence, or otherwise. In addition, each member will participate in committee membership and fulfill obligations for cooperative work or opt to pay an assessment charge ($225.00). Members will agree to abide by all PVYC rules and regulations subject to termination of membership. Signature acknowledges that I have reviewed the rules as published on the PVYC website at www.ourpvy.com and agree with the above stipulations.

Committee Choices /Assessment Fee

The Pioneer Valley Yacht Club is a cooperative membership organization. Members are required to either serve 15 hours on a club committee each year or pay an additional annual fee of $225.

Committees are: Dock, Race, Social, Boatyard, Grounds, Pool, House and Membership

Preferences for committee choice will be honored whenever possible. However, the PYVC reserves the right to make assignments as needed to properly run and maintain the club. Any member, who has not heard from his/her committee chair by mid-May, should contact that chair to determine the work plan/schedule for the year. Members who do not complete the required 15 hours of committee service will be assessed in the fall at the rate of $20/hour.
